

I Forgive You

*The dark prince is lurking there
The green monster breathes the same air
Go away, your not going to scare me
Night falls and morning breaks
Golden sunshine on my window pane
You can look outside, that's where you'll find me
One long breath
And I can breath again
Time to forget...I forgive you
The storm blows and it never ends
There's a danger of hurting, but I won't bend
Just thrashing about, angry, under the siege
A maiden sky, my heart is breaking
And what do you know, my hand have stopped shaking
It was all the rage, but now there's a softer breeze
One long breath
And I can breath again
Time to forget...I forgive you*
